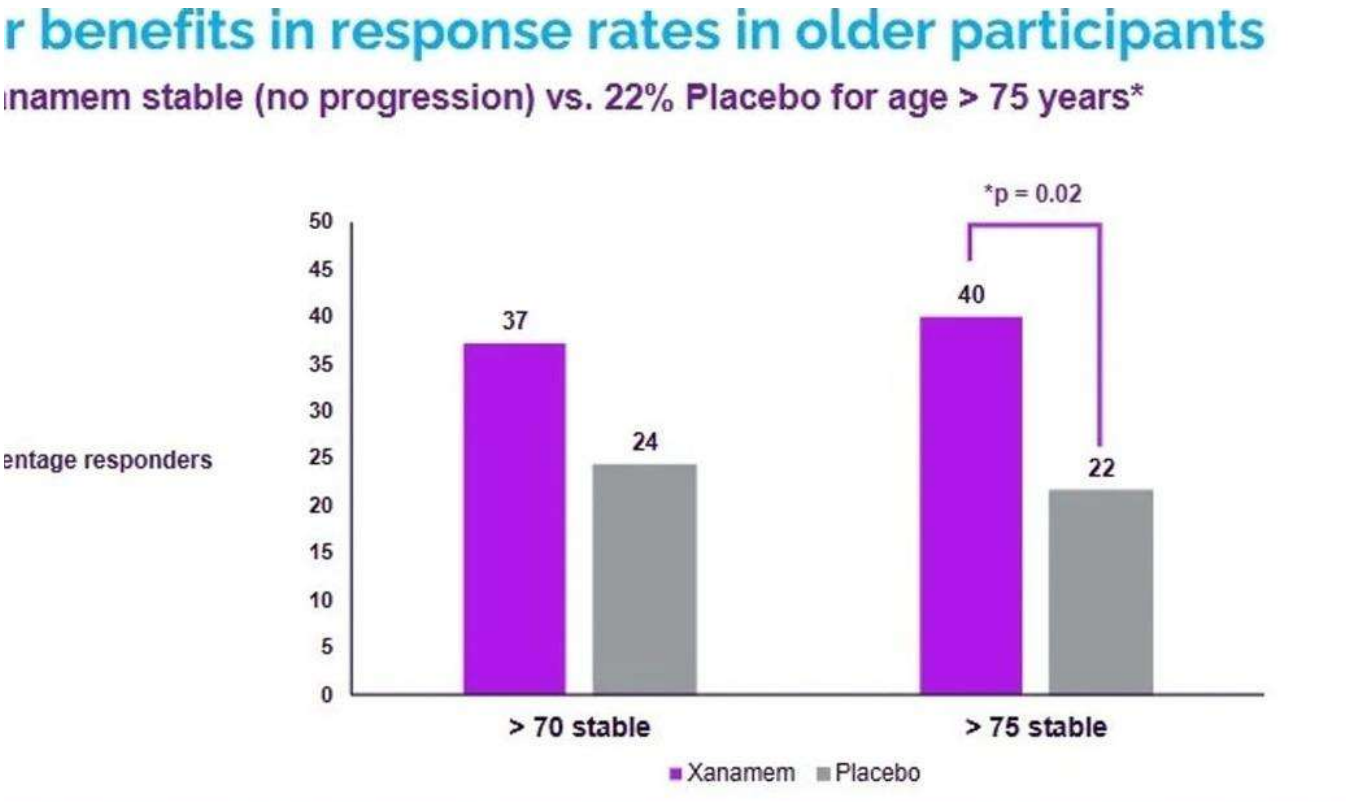
The Smart Times Toronto

AUSTRALIA

Australian trial reveals new drug slows Alzheimer’s progression in over-75s by 30 per cent

By Press Room — November 19, 2026 No Comments 1 Min Read

Facebook Twitter Pinterest LinkedIn Reddit Telegram What



An Australian-developed drug that targets stress hormones in the brain has emerged as a potential weapon against the condition that kills more Australians than any other disease.

Press Room

KEEP READING

US Senate rejects curbing Trump's Iran war powers

Joeys down Argentina in great start to U17 World Cup

Fiji recall Hughes, Ikanivere to captain against Italy

Trump, Putin 'want to include Europe' in Ukraine deal

How Australia's Test XI have reacted to sandpapergate

NASA's Voyager 1 phones home – from one light-day away

ADD A COMMENT

THJ MAILBOX SERVICES

GOLDBAY TELECOM INC.

Subscribe to Updates

Get the latest politics, business, sports, lifestyle, and many more news directly to your inbox.

© 2026 The Smart Times Toronto. All Rights Reserved.